

Historical Committee

Mission

- The objective of the office of historian is to preserve records relating to the evolution of the association, who the individuals were, when and what contributions were made in the past for future reference by members and interested parties.

Duties/Responsibilities

- The AFTE Historian is responsible for preserving any and all documents, photographs, and records related to the Association of Firearm and Toolmark Examiners meeting, seminars and business whether they are paper or electronic. These records shall include but are not restricted to such things as the AFTE Journal, presentation handouts, photographs or records kept by individuals that deal with the association and/or forensic firearm identification.
- These records may be sent to the historian at any time and are stored in a clean, dry and secure location for preservation.

History

The position of AFTE Historian was combined with the AFTE Secretary position from 1980 when Eugenia Bell was elected to replace Marshall Robinson and continued until 1991 when Mr. Larry Fletcher was elected AFTE Secretary.
